Winter 2015

Winter time is here again. A time to keeping warm with the family and enjoy cosy evenings, but also sometimes a tough time for little ones. So stay safe and make sure you follow up any issues with your family doctor.

OARA has lots of exciting events coming up, including our National Catch Up Day and the Sydney Conference in 2016.

Thanks everyone, and best wishes from everyone at OARA!

Sydney Conference 2016

Next year, Sydney will host the the Fourth International Oesophageal Atresia Conference. We have a brochure with some more details available online here.

Social Media

You can keep up with all the latest news, stories and discussions at our Facebook page here.

Support

Thank you to everyone who supported us over the last financial year. We're hoping to expand our services even further, and any support you can offer will be invaluable. To donate, please go to: <http://oara.org.au/Donate>

Merchandise

Don't forget, we still have a great range of merch available, including wristbands, drink bottles and badges. To check out the range, just go to: <http://oara.org.au/Awareness>

Information

We have brochures and support information available online to download. These and other great resources can be found here.

National Catch Up Day

Our National Catch Up Day will take place around the country later this year. Keep up to date with event details on our Facebook page here, and our state reps will be in touch with further details soon.

Stadium Stomp Adelaide

Carlie, a TOF/OA mum (and SA state rep) completed the Stadium Stomp in Adelaide on Sunday 14th June. She and a friend climbed more than 6000 stairs at the Adelaide Oval stadium!

Carlie will be donating the proceeds from the fundraising event to OARA, and they'll contribute to our current project which is expanding the OA Nurse network around key Australian hospitals.

If you'd like to participate in a fundraising event like this, just let us know at mail@oara.org.au.
